Dear Tameka Hobbs,

Thank you for applying to the NEH Awards to Faculty program. Your application, Exodus in the Sunshine State: Florida Memorial University's Relocation to Miami, 1963-1968, has been assigned the following application number: HB50534.

The NEH provides a website for applicants where you can check the status of your letters, send reminders to your letter writers, contact the program staff, and view the program schedule. To log in, you must provide your NEH application number, HB50534, and also your grants.gov tracking number, which is included in several e-mail messages you received from grants.gov. That website can be found here:

<https://securegrants.neh.gov/AppStatus/default.aspx>

We have sent instructions to the referees listed in your application enabling them to submit letters in support of your project. Their letters must be submitted online not later than June 3, 2014. You will be notified by e-mail when a letter has been submitted.
