

Dr. Tameka Hobbs @ Florida Memorial University

Search this site

Course Instructor

Click here to read about Dr. Tameka Hobbs

Important Information

- Home
- Sign up for your class email group!
- Extra Credit Opportunity
- HIS 103 – African American History I
 - Syllabus
 - Class Resources
 - Homework Assignments
- HIS 104 – African American History II
 - Syllabus (8am)
 - Announcements for African American History Classes
 - Homework Assignments
- HIS 200 – American History
 - Syllabi – HIS 200 (10am and 11am)
 - Homework Assignments
 - Class Resources
 - Announcements for My American History Classes
- Contact Me

Edit sidebar

General Messages

2/13: Slavery By Another Name on PBS Slavery by Another Name. Official Selection of the 2012 Sundance Film Festival premieres on PBS Monday, February 13, 2012 at 9pm ET / 8pm CT (check local listings) <http://www.pbs.org/tpt/slavery-by-another-name/>
Posted Feb 10, 2012 5:48 PM by Tameka Hobbs

2/14: The Loving Story on HBO The documentary film tells the dramatic story of Richard and Mildred Loving, an interracial couple living in Virginia in the 1950s, and their landmark Supreme Court Case, Loving v. Virginia, that changed history. <http://lovingfilm.com/>
Posted Feb 10, 2012 5:48 PM by Tameka Hobbs

Video: Post-Traumatic Slave Syndrome Title: Post-Traumatic Slave Syndrome by Dr. Joy DeBruin-Leary Link: [http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8rQjVZx6jzc&feature=BFa&list=PL753C887F42399DEC&lf=results_mainDescription: Many of us have heard of post-traumatic stress syndrome, the psychological and mental damage experienced by people who've experienced traumatic events. What about the traumatic experience of slavery? Dr. Leary has written a book exploring this topic that looks at the psychological damage that blacks suffered under chattel slavery, and some of the resulting detrimental and insidiously behaviors that have since become a part of modern black culture. This also puts me in the mind of the famous/infamous "Willie Lynch Letter." TO WATCH: The link with take you to the first of ...](http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8rQjVZx6jzc&feature=BFa&list=PL753C887F42399DEC&lf=results_mainDescription: Many of us have heard of post-traumatic stress syndrome, the psychological and mental damage experienced by people who've experienced traumatic events. What about the traumatic experience of slavery? Dr. Leary has written a book exploring this topic that looks at the psychological damage that blacks suffered under chattel slavery, and some of the resulting detrimental and insidiously behaviors that have since become a part of modern black culture. This also puts me in the mind of the famous/infamous)
Posted Feb 10, 2012 5:36 PM by Tameka Hobbs

Showing posts 1 – 3 of 12. View more »

@tamekahobbs

tamekahobbs

Inmates being used to provide labor in Louisiana #sbanpbs <http://t.co/02nVY2m1> 18 hours ago

RT @elonjames Negroes were arrested for vague and trivial nonsense. 30 to 40% died while leased during incarceration. #SlaveryByAnotherName 19 hours ago

"Fiendishly rational" to use convict labor. Human rights vs. Greed #sbanpbs 19 hours ago

RT @elonjames "A Convict could be rented for 9 dollars a month." #SlaveryByAnotherName 19 hours ago

Watching #sbanpbs makes me think about the privatization of prisons in Florida. What is old is new again 19 hours ago

RT @elonjames Vagrancy Statutes: You became a criminal if you could not prove your were employed. #SlaveryByAnotherName #sbanpbs 19 hours ago

RT @elonjames Only 10% of arrests where

African American History

Great Piece for Extra Credit Comparison
Posted Jan 8, 2012 8:48 AM by Tameka Hobbs

African American Woman Becomes U.S. Army's First 2-Star General
<http://www.thegrio.com/news/african-american-woman-becomes-us-armys-first-two-star-general.php>
Posted Sep 30, 2011 12:53 PM by Tameka Hobbs

"Mother of Hip Hop" Dies No, not Mama Jones. Sylvia Robinson. I hadn't heard of her before but now I can put a "-" in the column for black women in the hip-hop industry
Posted Sep 30, 2011 10:41 AM by Tameka Hobbs

In the News: The Spirit of Marcus Garvey Lives Poking around the web tonight and found this. Interesting connection to Garvey's ideas of Pan-Africanism.
Posted Sep 28, 2011 6:18 PM by Tameka Hobbs

35 States get an "F" for their Civil Rights Curriculum
<http://www.thegrio.com/specials/education-nation/study-35-states-flunk-on-teaching-the-civil-rights-history.php>
Posted Sep 28, 2011 2:21 PM by Tameka Hobbs

Showing posts 1 – 5 of 5

TECHNOLOGY

USE OF BLACKBOARD FOR ALL COURSES

The screenshot displays the Blackboard LMS interface for a user named Tarreka Hobbs. The browser address bar shows the URL: https://ecampus.fmuniv.edu/webapps/portal/frameset.jsp?tab_tab_group_id=1_1. The interface includes a navigation bar with links for 'My Institution' and 'Courses'. The main content area is divided into several panels:

- Tools: A sidebar menu containing links for Announcements, Calendar, Tasks, My Grades, Send Email, User Directory, Address Book, Personal Information, and Outcomes Assessment Tool.
- My Announcements: A central panel showing a list of announcements for various courses, including 'African American History II', 'African American History 1800', and 'History of the USA'. Each announcement includes a date and a brief description of the content.
- My Courses: A panel on the right side listing the courses the user is teaching, such as 'African American History II', 'African American History 1800', 'History of the USA', and 'History of the USA SEC1806'. Each course entry includes a list of announcements.
- My Calendar: A panel at the bottom left showing a calendar of events, including exams and assignments with their respective dates and times.
- On Demand Help and Learning Catalog: A panel on the right side providing information about the On Demand Learning Center and its resources.
- My Tasks: A panel at the bottom right showing a list of tasks for the user, including 'Purchase your textbook'.