The Meeting

A Play and Discussion of Civil Rights Movement

The Old Dillard Museum presented the play, "The Meeting," in Fort Lauderdale at Walker Auditorium and in Miami at the African Heritage Cultural Arts Center. Directed by John Prior the play featured Donnie Seward (left) as Martin Luther King, Jr. and Darryl Vaughn (right) as Malcolm X. The thought provoking play by Jeff Stetson provided a timely focus for a discussion of the civil rights movement and black people coming together for the good of us all.

Slavery By Another Name Discussion

WHD105 Radio Personality Rodney Baltimore moderates a discussion between the community and local scholars about the Civil Rights Movement. Scholars included Derrick White, Kisha King, Kitty Oliver and Tamexa Hobbs. The thought provoking discussion on February 20 focused on a theme from the documentary "Slavery By Another Name." You may watch the documentary on the National Endowment for the Humanities website, and see why it was such an interesting conversation.

The Old Dillard Museum is one of 473 institutions across the country that are using the power of documentary films to encourage community discussion of America's civil rights history. Created Equal: America's Civil Rights Struggle is an initiative of the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History. Gilder Lehrman developed the exciting programmatic and support

Gilder Lehrman developed the exciting programmatic and support materials for the sites. The powerful documentaries, The Abolitionists, Slavery by Another Name, Freedom Riders, and The Loving Story, include dramatic scenes of incidents in the 150-year effort to achieve equal rights for all. Freedom Riders received an Emmy in 2012, and The Loving Story and The Abolitionists have been nominated for Emmys in 2013.

April 10 Jazz Concert

April 10, 2014 @ ODM Showtime 7 p.m.

Educator, jazz vocalist and violinist Nicole Yarling is gathering up and coming musicians from across South Florida for another edition of the Cannonball Jazz Series. Students from "the Jazz Encounter" dazzled our audience with their skills in February. We are expecting an amazing comeback for our April 10th show. You may reserve seats in the Donation Section on the right of this page.
